

COVID-19 Behavioral Survey

This survey, conducted by Clay County Public Health Center, was developed to better understand the spread, strategies of prevention, and potential behavioral risk factors of COVID-19 in Clay County, Missouri. Survey participants are residents of Clay County age 25 or older and recently tested positive for COVID-19. Data from this study is shared in summary form only.

Who Took the Survey

Race

100% - White/European American/Middle Eastern American
0% - Black or African American
0% - Multi-Racial and Other

Ethnicity

100% Non-Hispanic or Non-Latino

Gender

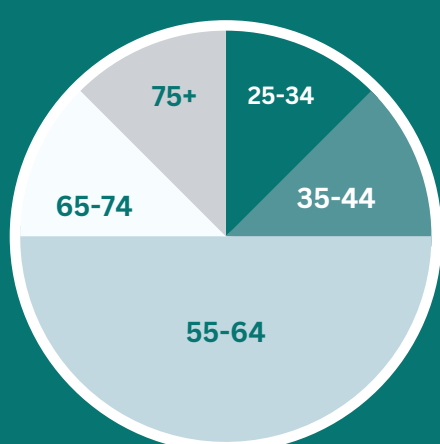

86% Female | 14% Male | 0% Other

Education

0% No High School Diploma
25% High School Diploma
38% Attended College
25% Associate's Degree
0% Bachelor's Degree
13% Master's Degree

Age

Perceived Health Status

Poor

13%

Good

38%

Excellent

50%

Protection Tools

Percentage that reported Often or Always using these tools to protect against COVID in the two weeks leading up to testing

Mask in public
29%

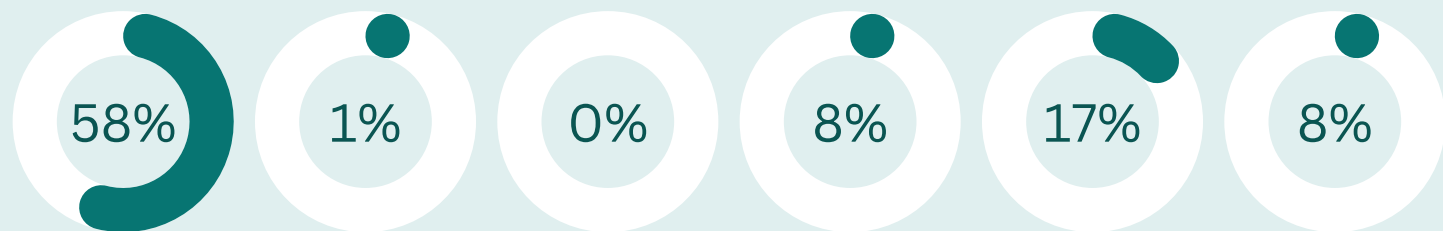

Avoid crowds
29%

Limit travel
29%

Reason for Testing

Experiencing COVID symptoms

Exposed to COVID

Was required to get tested

Preparing to spend time with friends & family

Recently traveled

Preparing to travel

Top Trusted Sources of Info (in order)

1. CDC
2. State/County Health Departments
3. Healthcare Providers
4. FDA

Reinfection

Tested positive for COVID-19 before?

