2016-2017 Influenza Season
End of Season Report

Influenza by Type
- Influenza A: 29.4%
- Influenza B: 4.5%
- Untyped: 6.1%

Influenza Rate per 100,000 Population
- Clay County (2,901)
- Northwest District (1,412)
- Missouri (1,179)

3,323 total reported cases in Clay County Public Health Center jurisdiction

Influenza Season Peak Weeks
- Jan. 29: 367 cases
- Feb. 5: 665 cases
- Feb. 12: 402 cases

Influenza Vaccine Efficacy (CDC preliminary data)
- A: 43%
- B: 73%

Influenza-Like Illness: ER Visits (ESSENCE)
- Feb. 5: 30 visits
- Feb. 12: 32 visits
- Feb. 19: 27 visits

The mission of the Clay County Public Health Center is to deliver the essential public health services of prevention, promotion and protection to the communities of Clay County.
Influenza in Clay County for Epi Weeks 39-20, 2011-2012 Season to 2016-2017 Season

Number of Cases

Epidemiological Week

Influenza Cases By Age Group

0-1  2-4  5-14  15-24  25-49  50-64  64+

Untyped Influenza  Influenza B  Influenza A

The mission of the Clay County Public Health Center is to deliver the essential public health services of prevention, promotion and protection to the communities of Clay County.